My dear Gray

Every letter I write before leaving home is to express regret and make excuses for having left undone something I had promised to do - and you I fear must share the same fate.

I send a box to there for tomorrow addressed to you care of Messrs Brown Hilly & Co Carriers to Liverpool - containing Sprengel's Dillenianae to Composite 299 y. £6.0.0

Two fresh vols of Bertoloni Miscellanea (These amounts will go towards paying for genus covers)

A copy of Coar's Jamaica Duplicate sheets of St. Wrightianae returned

Leguminosae Juncusukianae a thin pamphlet which I thought could go by post but the Bedford post office was no

Rubiacae Cortesianae

Compositae Cortesianae all but a sheet which I have not yet received

I intended to add some duplicate plants but I have not had time to look them out - they must wait our return

Leguminosae Cortesianae are not yet printed - and there only sent half the MSS - including the genus Orana

Recd yours & Mr Gray to Mr Beutham. I sincerely hope we may meet Mr & Mrs Loring in town

We start on Saturday morning & sail back for Holland about the 8th Jan stay a little time perhaps a fortnight in Holland then work our way to Munich where stay some time - then to Geneva & home in Sept. or Oct through France

This is a marrying season for botanists daughters Miss Lindley - Miss A. Wallis are already married - Miss Hooker was to have been married this month but has had her neuritis so bad that she is now in Jacey or Orkney with her
is to be married in a fortnight to a great friend
banker of Geneva.
I have been so hard at work this winter that I want respite
